Example issues/ example questions/ tasks being completed	Issues, questions and tasks depend on the films discussed during classes. Each semester, the Documentary Film Academy proposes a new set of films: these are the premiere titles and the most recognized films in each season. The tasks usually revolve around topics such as: the process of creating a film, its meaning and form, its connection with the problems of the modern world; documentary film as a pretext to understand cultural, social and political issues.
