Subject objectives	The aim of the course is to familiarise students with the history of the Nordic countries, with a particular focus on long-term historical processes and issues that allow for a fuller understanding of the shape of societies in these countries today. These topics will be presented against the background of European and world history, with the aim of presenting, on the one hand, the specificity of the historical processes taking place in the Nordic region and, on the other hand, their relationship to the wider European and world context.
