Subject objectives	Enable students to learn about law in extensive, transnational, regional, global and comparative perspectives. The issue of legal families reflects the spirit of the times at the turn of the 20th and 21st centuries and provides an opportunity to understand the processes of the various legal families like change, reception, unification, globalization and their implications for the practice performed by future lawyers. The course aims to facilitate respectful and open discussion of different legal systems and cultures. Students are expected to participate in discussions in a spirit of inquiry, respect and mutual learning.
