Subject objectives	The student develops knowledge of radio theatre and television drama through materials based on works by both Polish and international authors. They learn about the key features, conventions, styles, and trends of these forms of art. They are able to distinguish between radio theatre, television drama, and film, and understand the distinctiveness of radio and television arts as separate from literature. Additionally, they become familiar with the basic categories, tools, and methodologies for studying radio and television arts.
