Subject objectives	The aim of the workshop is a sociological analysis of global problems and their manifestations on a local scale. The emphasis will be on searching for innovative solutions. During the classes, participants and the instructor will answer the following questions in the form of various workshop tasks: How to meet the challenges of the future? What could we do if the sky was the limit? How to look boldly and boldly into the future? How to think about solutions to problems in order to avoid unplanned consequences? What abstract but within our reach solutions can we come up with?
