Subject objectives	The aim of the exercises is to familiarize students with the basic concepts of criminal tax law and their practical application, including: the basics of criminal tax liability; penalties, punitive measures, and preventive measures; ways to avoid criminal fiscal liability (with particular emphasis on active repentance and submission to liability); basic types of prohibited fiscal acts, both crimes and misdemeanors. The exercises will provide practical knowledge necessary to practice as a tax advisor, minimizing the risk of coming into conflict with the law during professional activity.

Learning outcomes	Course outcome	Subject outcome	Method of verification
	[PiDPL3_WG02] has organized and theoretically substantiated advanced knowledge, covering issues in the fields of various branches of substantive and formal law related to public levies, as well as in the field of accounting	Students will acquire the ability to apply the knowledge gained in many areas of law to criminal tax law, including solving complex legal problems in the profession of tax advisor.	[SW4] test/egzamin - ustny lub pisemny
	[PiDPL3_KK01] understands the complexity of problems occurring in the field of public finance law, finance and accounting and related disciplines and therefore is ready to critically assess the knowledge possessed in this area and the content received. understands the importance of knowledge in solving cognitive and practical problems and - in case of difficulties in solving the problem independently - seeking the opinions of experts dealing with public finance law, finance, accounting and related disciplines (especially scientists, experienced tax advisors, accountants, lawyers dealing with disciplines other than tax law and balance sheet law), and if necessary, also expert specialists in disciplines other than legal and economic sciences	By solving criminal tax cases, students will recognize both the complexity of the subject matter and the need for a critical, multifaceted approach to the issues under consideration, as well as the limits of their knowledge and the need to seek expert assistance where their competence ends.	[SK4] test/egzamin - ustny lub pisemny
	[PiDPL3_UW01] is able to use the acquired theoretical knowledge in the field of public finance law and accounting and related scientific disciplines in order to formulate and solve complex and atypical problems (e.g. validation and interpretative problems related to the application of public finance law, tax analysis problems or balance sheet problems), including performing tasks in conditions not fully predictable by: appropriate selection of sources (including, in particular, legal acts, doctrinal literature and case law) and information from them, assessment, critical analysis and synthesis, selection and application of appropriate methods and tools (including advanced information and communication technologies, e.g. using learned methods of legal interpretation using electronic databases of case law and literature to solve basic problems related to the application of public finance law)	Students will acquire analytical skills enabling them to solve complex criminal tax issues with the support of IT and literature sources, case law, and professional information.	[SU4] test/egzamin - ustny lub pisemny
	[PiDPL3_UO04] is able to plan and organize individual and team work, as well as cooperate with others in teamwork, in particular those appropriate for the application of public finance law and accounting (including interdisciplinary work, in particular legal and economic)	Students will gain the creative thinking skills necessary to perform their professional work, including learning about the criminal law limits of this activity, which are essential in many aspects of professional work, including tax optimization.	[SU4] test/egzamin - ustny lub pisemny
	[PiDPL3_UK02] is able to communicate using specialist legal, financial and tax terminology, as well as participate in a debate on the problems of applying public finance law, finance and accounting - including presenting and evaluating different opinions and positions and discussing them	Students will become proficient in using the terms of the fiscal penal code, gaining precision and awareness in their speech.	[SU4] test/egzamin - ustny lub pisemny
