Learning outcomes	Course outcome	Subject outcome	Method of verification
	[HISTL3_K03] Is ready to fulfil social obligations, co-organise activities for the benefit of the social environment in the field of education and promotion of the historical and cultural heritage of Poland, its region and Europe	The student appreciates the role of history in understanding and proper evaluation of cultural heritage. At the same time, he is aware of the level of his knowledge. He pays attention to counterarguments and has respect for different assessments of the past.	[SK8] observation of student's independent or team work
	[HISTL3_W09] Has advanced knowledge to analyse and interpret historical sources and understands their usefulness in historical research	The student is aware of the existence of many sources covering post-war history of Poland and the need to confront them in order to obtain a picture as close to the actual one as possible. At the same time, being aware that this picture will always be incomplete.	[SW1] oral statement/ conversation/discussion
	[HISTL3_W02] Has advanced, chronologically and thematically ordered knowledge of the history of ancient and modern Polish lands	The student has an advanced, organized knowledge of the history of Poland after 1945 and the processes taking place at that time and the cause-and-effect relationships that existed.	[SW1] oral statement/ conversation/discussion
	[HISTL3_U02] Is able to correctly select and use appropriate methods and tools appropriate to the work of a historian (including advanced information and communication techniques)	The student is able to independently acquire knowledge both from the recommended literature on the subject and - with the use of proper methodology - other sources: press, film, belles-lettres, etc.	[SU1] oral statement/conversation/ discussion
	[HISTL3_W05] Has an advanced knowledge of the achievements of historiography, distinguishes its main currents and is aware of the existence of different points of view in historical and related sciences, determined by different national and cultural backgrounds	The student understands the existence of different views on the events of the People's Republic of Poland, their distinct assessments and the fact that the events and phenomena taking place at that time are assessed variously today.	[SW1] oral statement/ conversation/discussion
	[HISTL3_K01] Critically evaluates his/her knowledge, demonstrates a willingness to continually expand his/her knowledge and to seek expert advice if he/she has difficulty solving a problem on his/her own	The student is able to critically assess the knowledge he or she possesses. They are aware of changes in historical research on recent history (resulting, for example, from the availability of new sources). They understand the need for further education.	[SK8] observation of student's independent or team work
	[HISTL3_U04] Is able to participate in debate - present and evaluate different opinions and positions and discuss them using correctly the professional terminology of the historical sciences	The student knows the sequence of events from the 1944-1989 period and their cause-and-effect relationships. He can accurately select arguments in a discussion about the latest history of Poland. He can distinguish professional historical content from ahistorical or propaganda threads.	[SU8] observation of student's independent or team work
	[HISTL3_U01] Is able to use their knowledge: to formulate and, through the appropriate selection of information sources, critically analyse and synthesise them, to solve complex and unusual problems in the field of history	The student is able to present the causes and subsequent effects of events and processes that took place in Poland and rest of the world in the years 1945-1989.	[SU8] observation of student's independent or team work
