Example issues/ example questions/ tasks being completed	Due to the original nature of the class program (depending on the shape of the instructor), the content presented may address different issues each time, always based on the analysis of selected literary works of the Enlightenment. The classes discuss the literary traditions of the era, genre conventions, cultural trends and ideological formations of the Polish Enlightenment. The subject of a detailed examination may be, for example, theater and drama of the Enlightenment, Enlightenment novels, memoirs, periodicals, occasional literature, or the feminist perspective of research in literary reflection on the Enlightenment.
