	[ZARZMU2_U09] The student can independently plan and implement the learning process, improve professional skills in lifelong management, and guide others in this area.	The student independently obtains and analyses data and then uses them to prepare and conduct the negotiation process.	[SU1] oral statement/conversation/discussion [SU2] presentation/project/paper/report
	[ZARZMU2_U10] The student can communicate information, express opinions, and engage in debates with diverse audiences using management and quality science terminology across various media.	The student chooses an appropriate strategy to act in a negotiation situation and uses a variety of media, communicating with the public in such a way as to increase the likelihood of reaching an effective agreement.	[SU1] oral statement/conversation/discussion [SU2] presentation/project/paper/report
	[ZARZMU2_U11] The student can collaborate effectively in teams and assume leadership roles.	The student is aware of the necessity and differentiates his/her attitudes, behaviours and actions according to the role played in the negotiation and processes of interpersonal communication.	[SU1] oral statement/conversation/discussion [SU2] presentation/project/paper/report
	[ZARZMU2_W04] The student possesses a deep understanding of human behavior, including individual, group, and organizational dynamics within an organization.	The student distinguishes and characterises the main stages of the negotiation process, taking into account the role and tasks of the individual members of the negotiation team, and describes methods for strengthening and exploiting their negotiating position.	[SW4] test/exam - oral or written [SW2] presentation/project/paper/report
[ZARZMU2_W06] The student possesses a thorough understanding of the principles of rational decision-making related to individual resources, functional areas within the organization, processes, and management levels. This understanding is based on a well-structured and theory-supported foundation in management, quality sciences, economics, and finance.	The student identifies and analyses problems relating to the current negotiation situation and, on this basis, makes a rational decision about the action to be taken to increase the likelihood of success in the negotiation.	[SW4] test/exam - oral or written [SW2] presentation/project/paper/report
