Subject objectives	The student acquires knowledge about strategies for breaking the conventional relationship between the stage and the audience, as well as reception practices in the performing arts. Issues related to the design of the viewer's reaction by the creator are important. It is important to make people aware of different perspectives and functioning communication strategies. The student acquires general knowledge on the example of specific examples (case studies). The interpenetration of local, national and global perspectives is emphasized, with particular emphasis on digital media.
