Subject objectives	The course is intended to provide an introductory overview of general management theory, selected issues in macroeconomics and microeconomics as applied in business practice, and contemporary methods of managing artistic institutions in Poland. It is designed to impart knowledge about the specific nature of these institutions and their operations within organizational, legal, economic, and artistic contexts in the public, private, and non-governmental sectors. The course will describe their functioning in relation to the art market, cultural policy, cultural animation, project management, and marketing. It aims to lay the foundation for acquiring the skills necessary to organize and implement tasks in the cultural sphere.
